Our Space

Cocina Studio is a secret creative studio that seats in a refurbished sleepers factory, in the old industrial district of South Hackney, 5 minutes from London Fields. The studio is an experimental hub that merges food and fashion practices and that hosts Renata Brenha's atelier. Built on a workshop ethos, we create experiences around food, fashion and performance and hire the space for events and photoshoots.

El Living

Food & Wine

South American plant-based cuisine, seasonally developed with British produce from our associated farms and accompanied by perfectly non-perfect, natural, organic and biodynamic wines. Our menus are designed to invite you to pause, enjoy food with your six senses and to celebrate life and cultural exchange.
